Individuals planning to use direct Western Union wires in covering games must make their own arrangements with that company. Press box tickets for Western Union operators are allotted to that company on the basis of leased wire requests. Additional commercial facilities are available at each game for those sportswriters not desiring direct wires.

Photographers are not allowed on the playing field during the game but are permitted to work the field before the game and in the dressing rooms after the game; they will be assigned field-level areas for work during the game and also will be able to work from special platforms located off the upper level behind home plate, first base, third base and center field. Special areas have also been designated for television cameras.

Home and visiting dressing rooms are located on the lower level directly beneath the press box. An elevator is in operation before and after the game. The press entrance to the stadium is located near Gate E off the south parking lot. Press parking is available in the south lot near the Capitol Avenue service tunnel entrance.

ATLANTA STADIUM

Atlanta Stadium is the home of the Braves, the Atlanta Chiefs of the National Professional Soccer League, and the Atlanta Falcons of the National Football League. Construction on the stadium was begun in June, 1964, and completed in 51 weeks at an approximate cost of $18 million. The Braves signed a 25-year lease on the stadium in 1966. The first major league game in the stadium was played April 9, 1965 when the Braves defeated the Detroit Tigers, 6-3, in an exhibition game before a crowd of 37,232. The first regular season big league game in the stadium was played April 12, 1966; the Braves lost to the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-2 in 13 innings, before a crowd of 50,671. The outfield fence is six feet high, the wall is 22 feet high. Distances from home plate — left field fence and right field fence, 330′; centerfield fence, 402′.

BIOGRAPHIES, CLUB OFFICERS

WILLIAM C. BARTHOLOMAY

Chairman and President—Born in Evanston, Ill., Aug. 11, 1928, now lives in Atlanta . . . He has five children: Virginia, William, Jamie, Elizabeth and Sarah.

Member of 11-man group which purchased stock amounting to 46 per cent interest in the Chicago White Sox in December, 1961 . . . This interest was sold to Arthur C. Allyn May 4, 1962 . . . Bartholomay and his associates joined with John J. McHale, Braves' president, to purchase control of the Braves from the Perini Corp. Nov. 16, 1962 . . . Bartholomay was named Chairman at that time, and assumed the presidency of the club Jan. 11, 1967, when McHale resigned to become administrative assistant to William C. Eckert, Commissioner of Baseball.

Also Chairman and President of the Atlanta Chiefs of the National Professional Soccer League, President of the Atlanta Stadium Club, and President of Braves Productions, Inc. . . . President of Olson & Bartholomay, Inc., insurance agency with offices in Chicago, New York and Atlanta, and a life member of the Million Dollar Round Table of National Association of Life Underwriters . . . President of Surprise, Inc., director of Seeburg Corp., Achilles Corp., United Trust Life, and Pacific Coast Co. . . . Prominent in many charities, board member of the Atlanta Convention Bureau, the Atlanta Boys' Club, and Oglethorpe College of Atlanta, and a trustee of Lake Forest College.

Graduated from North Shore Country Day School in Chicago, where he earned nine letters in baseball, basketball and football, and was Captain of the basketball team . . . Attended Northwestern University School of Business Administration . . . Attended Oberlin College, where he was a member of the golf team . . . Graduated from Lake Forest College in Lake Forest, Ill.

THOMAS A. REYNOLDS, JR.

Executive Vice-President and Secretary—Born in Chicago, Ill., Aug. 30, 1928, lives in Winnetka, Ill. . . . Married to the former Suzanne FitzSimmons; they have nine children: Tom III, Julie, Kathleen, Sherman, Mary Clare, Timothy, Suzanne, Stephen and Mary Ellen.

Member of original group which purchased Braves Nov. 16, 1962 . . . Has served as Executive Vice-President since that time . . . Is also General Counsel for the National Professional Soccer League . . . Partner in the law firm of Winston, Strawn, Smith and Patterson and a director of numerous corporations . . . Member of the Board of Trustees of the Allendale Boys School, the Brain Research Foundation and other charitable organizations . . . Director of the Western Golf Association . . . Graduated from Loyola Academy in Chicago, Georgetown University in Washington, D. C. and University of Michigan Law School . . . Member of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity.

PAUL R. RICHARDS

Vice-President for Baseball Operations—Born in Waxahatchie, Tex., Nov. 21, 1908, now lives in Waxahatchie . . . Married to former Margie McDonald; they have one daughter, Paula.

A former big league catcher, manager and general manager, Richards in 1938 won a pennant for the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association in his very first season as a manager . . . An American League pilot for the White Sox and Orioles from 1951 to 1961, he gained a reputation as one of the finest field managers ever . . . Now he is beginning his seventh season in the front office, where he's known as an executive who always finds time to go back to the field and work with young players . . . One of the game's most highly-regarded spokesmen, he is not afraid of innovations and experiments, especially in the field of pitching; he was instrumental in adoption of rules during the 1967 winter meeting which further prohibited the spitball . . . More recently, he has suggested moving the pitching mound back five feet.

Richards led American League catchers in double plays in 1945, when he was named catcher on the Sporting News Major League All-Star Team as his Detroit team won the World Championship . . . His big league managerial debut was in 1951 at Chicago: in '55 he became both general manager and manager at Baltimore, but resigned as GM in '58 to devote full-time to the field . . . He was the AL 'Manager of the Year' by AP & UPI in 1960 . . . He was replaced as manager of the Orioles in 1961 by present Braves' skipper Luman Harris . . . Joined the Houston Astros as that expansion club's first general manager, 1962-66, and for a while was a special scout for the Philadelphia Phillies before being named a Braves' vice-president Aug. 31, 1966.

'Hank.' Outfield. Born in Mobile, Ala. Graduated from Josephine Allen Institute, Mobile, Ala. 1951. Called greatest righthanded hitter since Rogers Hornsby. Passed these milestones during 1967 season: 2000 games, 1600 singles, 1500 runs, 1000 extra base hits, 4500 total bases, and 1500 runs batted in. Other milestones within his reach in from two to five seasons are 9000 at bats, 3000 hits, 500 doubles and 100 triples. "My goal is 3000 hits, he says. "The others will fall in place." Barring injury, he should reach 500 home runs during 1968 season (See Page 28). Threatens four major league records, including the three he is tied for (above). The fourth is 'Most Seasons, 150 or more Games.' Willie Mays' record is 13; Aaron has 12. Threatens three NL records; he has five seasons, 40 or more Home Runs—Mays' NL record is six; has 10 Seasons, 30 or more Home Runs—Mays' NL record is 11; has nine Seasons, 100 or more Runs Batted In—Mays and Stan Musial hold NL record, 10 Seasons. Most memorable home run is Sept. 23, 1957 blast off Billy Muffett of Cardinals in 11th inning at Milwaukee, clinching 1957 pennant. Most meaningful, he says, of his trophies is '57 Most Valuable Player Award. Was batting .467 for Indianapolis Clowns when owner Syd Pollock offered him to Braves in letter to Farm Director John Mullen. He and his wife, Barbara have four children: Gail, born Nov. 5, 1953: Hank, Jr., born Mar. 10, 1957; Larry, born Dec. 15, 1957; and Dorinda, born Feb. 5, 1962.

HOME RUNS

AARON APPLIES FOR THE 500 CLUB

Braves' slugger Henry Aaron joined an exclusive group in 1967 — he advanced to ninth on the all-time major league home run list, ahead of such greats as Stan Musial, Duke Snider, Gil Hodges, Ralph Kiner and Joe Dimaggio. This season Hammerin' Hank reaches for an even more exclusive group — the 500 Home Run Club. Right now the group includes only seven members: Babe Ruth, Willie Mays, Jimmy Foxx, Ted Williams, Mickey Mantle, Mel Ott and Eddie Mathews. At 481, Aaron needs 12 homers to tie Lou Gehrig for eighth place on the all-time list, 13 to pass Gehrig, and 19 to reach the magic 500 mark.

ALL-TIME TOP TEN

Ruth	714
Mays	564
Foxx	534
Williams	521
Mantle	518
Ott	511
Mathews	507
Gehrig	493
AARON	481
Musial	475

Aaron has ascended to the top ten in only 14 seasons. Ruth, meanwhile, played 22 years, while the others stack up this way: Mays, 17 seasons; Foxx, 18; Williams, 19; Mantle, 17; Ott, 16; Mathews, 16; Gehrig, 17; and No. 10 Musial, 23.

Aaron failed to hit at least 20 home runs in only one season — his first, 1954 at Milwaukee, when he had 13. Since then he's hit over 30 in a season 10 times and over 40 five times.

Hank's pace in his best years has been one homer about every three-and-a-half games. Last season, when he hit 39 in 155 games, he was hammering at the rate of one homer every 3.9 games. In 1962, however, when he hit 45 in 156 games, and in 1957, when he had 44 in 151 games, he was hitting home runs at the rate of one every 3.4 games. In 1963 (44 in 161) and 1966 (44 in 158) he hit at a 3.6 clip. If he can approximate those paces in '68, he will reach the 500 plateau in the middle or latter part of June, 1968.

TELEVISION-RADIO NETWORK

Play-by-play: Milo Hamilton Color: Ernie Johnson

Originating Station

Radio—WSB, Atlanta (750 k.c.) TV—WSB Television, Atlanta (Ch. 2)

Milo Hamilton, one of the nation's top sportscasters, begins his third year as play-by-play announcer on the Braves' radio and television broadcasts throughout the South. Ernie Johnson, former Braves' pitcher, is Hamilton's color man.

Director of Broadcasting Jim Faszholz heads up the network which will carry every Braves' game, home and away, by radio to more than 45 stations in seven states—Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee. Telecasts of 20 games, home and away, will reach fans in Dixie via 22 network TV stations.

EDDIE ROBINSON, who as the Braves' new Minor League Administrator will oversee the team's minor league and scouting operations, is a former slugging first baseman for Cleveland, Chicago, Philadelphia (As) and New York in the American League. He hit over 20 home runs in a season four times and appeared in four All-Star games, in 1949, 1951, 1952 and 1953. Since ending his playing career in 1956, he has become a successful front-office executive, serving as Farm Director for the Houston Astros and the Kansas City Athletics.

Richmond, the Braves' Class AAA farm, won the International League championship in 1967 and second baseman Felix Millan was named "Minor League Player of the Year." General Manager Hillman Lyons was the Sporting News "Minor League Executive of the Year."

The Braves' Class AA farm in the Texas League moves in '68 from Austin, where the team finished fourth in '67, to Shreveport. Twin Falls, Idaho and Greenwood, S. C. are also new to the Braves' organization. Charlie Lau at Shreveport, Connie Ryan at Twin Falls, and Lou Fitzgerald at Greenwood are the new managers in the Atlanta farm system for '68. Lau is a former big leaguer with Milwaukee and Baltimore; he hit four doubles in a game July 13, 1962 and caught Warren Spahn's second no-hit game April 28, 1961 against San Francisco. Andy Pafko, who managed for Atlanta last season at Kinston of the Carolina League, returns in '68 to West Palm Beach, where he managed in 1965. Eddie Haas, who piloted West Palm Beach last season, replaces Luman Harris at Richmond.

THE RECORD BOOK

96 YEARS OF BRAVES BASEBALL

The Braves are approaching their 100th anniversary in professional baseball. Born in 1871 as the Boston Red Stockings and known alternately as the Reds, Red Caps, Beaneaters, Nationals, Doves and Rustlers during the next 40 years, the team became the "Braves" in 1911 when New York City politician James E. Gaffney gained control of the team and gave it Tammany Hall's standard, the Indian head, and the attendant nickname, "Braves." For a brief period from 1936 to 1941, the team played as the "Bees," before becoming once again, the Braves.

The Red Stockings in the 1870's won four pennants in five years in the old National Association before the National League was formed in 1876. Boston won the pennant in '77 and '78. In the 1890's, Boston dominated the league, winning five pennants.

Since then, the modern Braves have won four pennants — in 1914, 1948, 1957 and 1958. The '14 "Miracle Braves" surged from last place on July 4th to capture the pennant by 10½ games. The '14 and '57 teams were World Champions.

Members of Baseball's Hall of Fame who have played for or managed the Braves at one time or another include Dan Brouthers, Jesse Burkett, John Clarkson, Jimmy Collins, Hugh Duffy, Johnny Evers, Billy Hamilton, Rogers Hornsby, King Kelly, Rabbit Maranville, Tommy McCarthy, Bill McKechnie, Kid Nichols, Jim O'Rourke, Charles Radbourne, Babe Ruth, George Sisler, A. G. Spalding, Casey Stengel, Paul Waner, George Wright, Harry Wright, and Cy Young.

The first permanent "Home of the Braves" was spacious Braves Field in Boston. Its fences reached 402 feet to left and right and 550 to center. It was built in 1915 after the "Miracle Braves" year at a cost of $600,000, and it seated 40,000. In 1953, when the Braves moved to Milwaukee, they occupied beautiful County Stadium. Now they perform in $18,000,000 Atlanta Stadium.

MODERN DAY BRAVES ROSTER (1900-1967)

Warren E. Spahn, 1942-64, had the longest period of active service as a Braves player—23 years, including three years (1943-44-45) of military service. Edwin L. Mathews, Jr., 1952-66, appeared in the most games as a Brave, 2223, and is the only Brave to have played in Boston, Milwaukee and Atlanta.

In all, a total of 925 players have performed for the Braves in Boston, Milwaukee and Atlanta in the "Modern Era" (since 1900).
